

Typically, a part can be ordered by specifying catalog size or visible glass. The visible glass dimensions can be determined by measuring the width and the height of the exposed glass from inside the home. (Refer to arrows on photo below)

